

CSO's 2023-24 Season

Join us for our 2023-24 season; we have an exciting and varied programme planned with works from Bernstein, Dvorak, Copeland, Mahler, Mozart and more.

New to our programme this year is an afternoon Christmas Concert, a presentation of music for Christmas with favourites like Leroy Anderson's Sleigh Ride. The Orchestra will be joined by a young persons choir for some items. Come and enjoy singing some carols with the orchestra and bring your family too for some Christmas magic!

The Season starts with 'Farces & Dances' in November. A concert with lively tunes and soulful melodies from Bernstein, Rachmaninov, Prokofiev and Dvorak.

In February 'Cities and Landscapes' paints pictures in music from England, America and Prague. Copland's 'Quiet City' features our own Paul Thomas, Trumpet and William Lacey-Kiggins, Oboe as soloists. A beautifully evocative piece along with favourites including Dvorak Symphony No.8.

Neill Carroll is the soloist in April's concert playing Mozart's Clarinet Concerto which is paired with Mahler's 5th Symphony.

We close the season with a return to The Tung Auditorium for a Spanish treat entitled 'Olé Olé Olé'. With Flamenco and Latin rhythms from Ravel, De Falla and Marquez, the iconic Guitar Concerto by Rodrigo with professional soloist Craig Ogden and Capriccio Espagnole by Rimsky Korsakov all directed by Juan Ortuño. A finale to the season not to be missed!
